- Exclusion from the Club when gambling becomes a problem

Our Financial Transaction Policy is also available but you should be aware of the following rules:

- This Club will not provide credit for gambling under any circumstances
- The maximum cash payout for this premises is $5,000

Minors

Minors are prohibited from gambling and are not permitted in the gaming area.

Gaming Machines

The Club will maintain gaming machines in premium condition for members and patrons enjoyment and clearly mark unplayable machines.

Gambling Environment

The Club will ensure a pleasant gambling environment for members and patrons. The Club will place a clock within designated gambling areas to make members and patrons aware of the passage of time.

Breaks in Play

The Club will not encourage extended, intensive and repetitive play and will make members and patrons aware of other alternative forms of entertainment available at the Club.

Gratuities

Staff working in gambling areas will not encourage gambling members and patrons to give them gratuities.

Service of Alcohol

Members and/or their guests showing signs of intoxication will be prevented from playing gaming machines and may be lawfully removed from the premises.

The Club will abide with the guidelines of the Responsible Service of Alcohol policy as issued by the Liquor Licensing Division.

Player Privacy

The Club will ensure all activities relating to gambling by members and patrons shall remain confidential and shall not be discussed with other members and patrons and members of the community.

Player Loyalty programs will not be abused to the detriment of the player or breach their desire for their gaming activities to remain confidential and private.

Self Exclusion

The Club has provisions as an operator to assist members and patrons who think they may have a problem with gambling to control their gambling habits.

Staff will co-operate with any person seeking to bar themselves from gambling by referring such person to the Club's Liaison Officers.

Exclusion Requested by a Third Party

The Club will suggest to any third party (eg. Family members or professional welfare groups) that self exclusion documents and procedures are available and will provide a copy of the Offer of Self Exclusion and Deed of Self Exclusion to the third party and encourage the third party to discuss the option with the person believed to have a problem with gambling.

Customers & Community Reaction

The Club's Duty Managers will perform customer liaison and community liaison officers roles to facilitate communication between members, patrons and community support agencies on responsible gaming issues.

The Club will ensure that gambling related staff, where appropriate, are trained on an on going basis in responsible provision of gambling and gambling products. They will receive training regarding the Responsible Gambling Policy so they may provide assistance to members and patrons regarding this policy.

The Club will assist employees who may have a problem with gambling as outlined in the Club's Responsible Gambling Employee Support Policy.
