Arties BAR

Arthur Hingst, a founding member of Carina Leagues Club, has been integral to its story since its inception in October 1970. Originally known as Chadwick Hall, the club started with a modest sporting liquor licence.

In July 1980, Arthur assumed the role of Secretary Manager, guiding the club's growth from just 3 staff members to a team of over 100 by the time of his retirement in April 2008.

Arthur Hingst's enduring legacy at Carina Leagues Club is his steadfast dedication to the local community. Under his leadership, millions of dollars were donated to support local sporting bodies, schools, and charities. Today, Arthur continues to foster community spirit as he oversees the Old Boys Club at our Juniors Clubhouse.

Arties Bar stands as a tribute to Arthur Hingst's profound impact on the history and community of Carina Leagues Club.
